REMARKS

The Preliminary Amendment is submitted to correct a German term that was mistranslated from the German patent application 100 01 410.0, filed January 14, 2000, to which the present application claims priority. The German term "gleichartig" was erroneously translated as "identical" instead with the correct term "similar". The corresponding occurrences in the specification and in claim 1 have been corrected by present amendment. No new matter has been introduced.
